Sister Peacock.

Dear Sister Peacock,

A very close friend of mine -Dr. McArdle - has spoken to me, more than once, of your interest in the question of Partition in Ireland and I therefore take the liberty of forwarding a booklet recently published on the subject.

You may know already, perhaps, that the Anti-Partition of Ireland League has been started here in London for the purpose of informing the British public about the true facts of Partition, and the necessity of abolishing it in the best interests of both England and Ireland. The Organisation, it is true, is still in the initial stages but we hope to enrol as members all people both English and Irish, who are sympathetic to our ideal. We have an ambitious programme of work including mass meetings and the ventilation of our grievance in the press generally, but before we can go ahead we need the support of every person like yourself who is interested in giving Ireland a square deal.

I therefore, take the liberty also of enclosing a few membership forms with the earnest hope that you may get one or two of your friends also to enrol as members.

Our office is always open during the day to those who want any information or help. Perhaps you may be able to spare a few moments the next time you are in the city to call in and have a talk on the whole question either with the Hon. Secretary or myself, if so, you would be very welcome. Trusting that your efforts on our behalf will be successful.

Yours faithfully,

Hon. Assistant Secretary of the Anti-Partition of Ireland League.
